Compose your own rhythms below. There should be a combination of eighth, whole, half, and quarter notes and rests, as well as dotted quarter and half notes. Be sure to write your own time signature on each line. You should use each time signature we've learned at least once.